

Always You: Book 6 of the Fated Hearts Series

Id often felt lost in the shadow of my older brother, Sebastian Blake. People either ran from me in fear or tried to use me to get to him. In my struggle to forge my own path, Id taken a wrong turn a time or two, which nearly cost me my life. Its true that what doesnt kill you can make you stronger, but that doesnt mean I wasnt filled with self-doubt and questioned my worthiness of being loved. The minute I met Tomas Sarantos, I knew there was something special between us. I felt a connection to him that Id never felt with anyone else, but I sadly watched the heat fade from his eyes the minute he learned who I was. My only choices were to accept his offer of friendship or nothing at all. Tom became the best friend Id ever had and I fell deeper in love with him every day. I died a little bit inside every time he talked about the love he was hoping to find and the family he wanted to have with someone else. My heart screamed at me to tell him that his search was over and that I was right there in front of him. Yet, I held my tongue and battled myself daily for over a year to hide my feelings from him. I lacked the courage to make a move, no matter how tired I was of denying my feelings for him.

* * * I finally had everything Id dreamed of when I accepted the position of CFO at Blake Industries well, almost everything. I still hadnt found the man I wanted to build a life with, until I met Wesley King. He was everything I ever wanted, but he was also the one I could never have. Dating in the workplace was risky enough, but falling in love with the CEOs only brother was professional suicide. Too bad my heart wasnt in agreement. Wesley became the most important person in my life, the one I shared everything with except the one thing I wanted to give him my heart. For an entire year, I tried to talk myself out of loving him and focused my efforts on finding someone attainable. I probably set a world record for dating disasters and all that I accomplished was to make me want Wesley even more. Then life threw me a curveball and made me reevaluate everything. I could either take a chance that Wesley still felt the spark I once saw in him or continue on being miserable in the friend zone. It would either be the happiest time of my life or the most mortifying, but I'd never know unless I tried.

* * * Always You is the sixth book in the Fated Hearts series. It can be read as part of the series or as a standalone novel. Always You also includes the return of Sebastian and Adam Blake from the novel Only You. This book contains sexually explicit materials and is only intended for adults 18 and older.
