

Wallflower (Rear Entrance Video)

This gamer geek has a pretty little secret. Art student and MMORPG addict Robert Ng has always been a loner, but hes recently made it his goal to make more (IRL) friends. Which is how he winds up working nights at Rear Entrance Video, shilling sketchy porn and blowup dolls as a favor to his roommate. The longer he works there, though, the more he realizes hell never be truly happy until he becomes the person he is online: his female persona, Bobby. Bobby is cuter and funnier than Rob is, and a thousand times more popular with boys. Becoming Bobby IRL presents its own set of challenges, though ... especially when youre sitting on the fence between two genders, only one of which has caught the attention of your seriously cute customer/classmate. Dylan Ford is a six-foot Inuit comic book artist who always says whats on his mind, and screw anyone who doesnt like it. As rough as he appears, though, Dylan has a soft spot for Rob. But will out-and-proud Dylan still want Rob if hes not all man?
