

Divided We Stand

Rising above religious intolerance. The Constitution of the United States in Article Six States, ...no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States. Is the Constitution the rule of law for our land? Divided We Stand is a journey into the muddled world of politics and religion. Our journey comes full circle when instead of changing views of the protesters we change our own attitudes towards them. If, as Americans, we are to Stand United, we must all take this journey.
