

Falling, One by One (The Borders War) (Volume 4)

Whether Armise lived or died was never supposed to matter to Merq. As the fight for the kids of the jacquerie begins and the war between Opposition and Revolution heightens, Merq discovers that he may not have as much control over his actions as he thought he did. Further complicating their tangled relationship, Armise may be just as compromised. Desperate to learn the truth, Merq and Armise put themselves directly in the path of a powerful enemy. They've spent fifteen years of their lives on the knife's edge of trust and loyalty. What they learn about each other's past and what it means for their future will bring them together or definitively tear them apart.
