Danielle Bilson is running out of time. At 29, she has almost everything she could ever want in life, except for one key thing: A family. Her fabulous job as a sports agent has given her more than enough joy over the years, but when her sister announces the arrival of her baby, Dani is struck with a sense of longing. Realizing something needs to change if she ever wants to feel complete again, she shares her feelings with good friend and client Duke. Duke The Bulldozer Smythe is a star football player living the American Dream. A small town boy from humble roots, now the most successful quarterback the world has ever seen. Never letting the spotlight take away his humble and helpful nature however, when Danielle confides in him about her longing for a baby, Duke just might have the solution. With things soon getting more than just a bit complicated, can the two keep their new relationship and arrangement hidden with the press and world always watching? Find out in this sexy and sweaty romance by best selling author Stacey Pond. Suitable for over 18s only due to sex scenes so hot, you'll be on the look out for your own football star!
