

Saint and Scholar (Hearts And Minds)

He teaches about the Irish past. She worries about their Irish future. Grant Fennell seems to lack the luck of the Irish. Hes had his nose broken three times, his dissertation advisor was a useless lump, hes thirty-one and finishing his PhD, and he cant find a teaching position in the US. Then he accepts a job in his native Ireland on the same day the stunning former student hes been intrigued by for nearly eight years shows a shred of interest. Finally, he catches a break: Carla Gill needs his expertise. Carla is at a dead end on her late Irish-American fathers family tree project. Who better to assist than an expert on Irish history? Especially one with the face of an Adonis and a brogue that makes her want to shed her clothes. Shell be his girlfriend, all right, in spite of her overprotective brothers and nay-saying friend. But when Carla accompanies Grant to Ireland to conduct her research, he makes it clear he wants to put her on the fast track to matrimony. The professor wants to teach her something about happily ever after. Does she really want her happy ending to start right now? CONTENT WARNING: Contains swearing in two languages and scenes of explicit sensuality.52,000 Words
