

Texas Rein (Texas Rein Trilogy Book 1)

If men were horses, Cassie Roberts would say she's been bucked off and trampled once too often. Now she wants only to raise her son, Samuel, and fly high on the East Coast social scene. When her father calls from the Texas family ranch in need of help, Cassie can't think of a worse fate than returning to sleepy Summerville. Then her father clues her into his bucket-list dream—namely to turn his prize foal into the first Olympic champion Reining horse. As if that weren't crazy enough, he enlists the help of a hottie local cowboy who looks enough like George Strait to make Cassie's heart quiver. The last thing she wants is a hometown hook-up, but Chase Eversoll could be their ticket to the Olympics. Willing or not, Cassie's in for another wild ride—just once could she finish on top?
